SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM FOR MISSISSIPPI INDUSTRIES

On March 17, 1987, Mississippi Industries¹ submitted a Memorandum to the Court advising of the pendency of petitions for rehearing of the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit which is the subject of the instant petitions for a writ of certiorari. Mississippi Industries requested in its Memorandum that consideration of the petitions for a writ of certiorari should be deferred until the pending petitions for rehearing were decided.

On April 3, 1987, the D.C. Circuit issued two orders—one by the panel denying rehearing and another per curiam order directing that the case will be reheard by the Court sitting en banc, with “such rehearing to be limited to the issues raised by the dissenting opinion of January 6, 1987.”² The en banc Court also ordered:

that those parts of Section III(C) (2) of the opinion of January 6, 1987 which address the two issues raised in the dissenting opinion, specifically, pages 76 to the end of the first paragraph on page 80, and the judgment of the same date insofar as it concerns those issues, are hereby vacated.

Rule 20.4 of the Supreme Court Rules provides that when a petition for rehearing has been filed, the time for filing a petition for a writ of certiorari “runs from the date of the denial of rehearing or of the entry of a subsequent judgment entered on the rehearing” (emphasis added). The purpose of the rule is to avoid piecemeal presentation of issues in the same case for the Court’s consideration. In the instant case, in light of the D.C. Circuit’s decision to reconsider the case en banc, and its action vacating portions of the panel’s opinion and judgment, the goal of Rule 20.4 will be served only if the Court’s consideration of the pending petitions for a writ of certiorari is further deferred until “a subsequent judgment on the rehearing” is entered by the D.C. Circuit.

² The two orders are set forth in the Appendix to this Memorandum.

Accordingly, Mississippi Industries requests that consideration of the pending petitions for a writ of certiorari should be further deferred until the D.C. Circuit's decision en banc is entered and that the time of Mississippi Industries to respond to the petitions be extended to 30 days from the entry of the D.C. Circuit's en banc decision.

Respectfully submitted,

Before: WALD, Chief Judge; ROBINSON, MIKVA, EDWARDS, RUTH B. GINSBURG, BORK, STARR, SILBERMAN, BUCKLEY, WILLIAMS and D. H. GINSBURG, Circuit Judges

ORDER

The suggestion for rehearing en banc of the City of New Orleans, Louisiana, the suggestion of Mississippi Industries, the Mississippi Attorney General and the Mississippi Public Service Commission, and the suggestion of Mississippi Power and Light Company were circulated to the full court. The taking of a vote was requested. Thereafter, a majority of the judges of the court in regular active service voted in favor of the suggestions. Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is ORDERED, by the Court en banc, that these cases will be reheard by the Court sitting en banc, such rehearing to be limited to the issues raised by the dissenting opinion of January 6, 1987. It is

FURTHER ORDERED, by the Court en banc, that those parts of Section III(C) (2) of the opinion of January 6, 1987, which address the two issues raised in the dissenting opinion, specifically, pages 76 to the end of the first paragraph on page 80, and the judgment of the same date insofar as it concerns those issues, are hereby vacated. It is FURTHER ORDERED, by the Court en banc, that briefs limited to the issues identified in the dissenting opinion of January 6, 1987 shall be filed in accord with the following schedule:

Petitioners' briefs (limited to 15 pages)	May 29, 1987
Brief of respondent (limited to 25 pages) and briefs of supporting intervenors, if any (limited to 10 pages)	July 30, 1987

The parties shall submit 30 copies of each brief filed. In light of the length of the briefing schedule, parties on the same side are expected to circulate drafts of their briefs and to file a joint brief, or briefs, or adopt briefs of other parties, wherever possible. The court looks with extreme disfavor upon numerous briefs presenting repetitive arguments.

The parties are further directed to submit 30 additional copies of all briefs previously filed and 15 copies of the joint appendix by May 29, 1987.

The parties will be advised by future order of the date of argument before the en banc court. That date will be sometime after commencement of the court's 1987 term, on September 8, 1987.
